CURRICULUM

WARM UP (validate existing knowledge)	Recap <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • “What did we talk about last time?” Time to Vote! <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Display all the books the kids explored throughout the program in different areas of the room. • “I am going to give everyone two post-it notes. Please write your name on each post-it note.” • “I want you to walk around the room and think about the books we have read during the Kids for Kids Intro. Now I want you to vote for your two favorites by putting one post it note on each book. You can only vote for a book once.” • “Which books were our favorites? Why do you think that is?” 	10 min
NEW IDEAS (introduce and apply new content)	You are Now the Book Expert! <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • “You are experts on these books! You have read them, talked about them, and learned from them. Now it is time to share your expertise with kids and adults!” • “We are each going going to write book reviews about one of them. Your reviews may be used in actual bookstores and libraries. Use your words to influence children and adults and what they choose to read!!” • “Before you write your review you can read through your books again. You may need to do with others if people choose the same book” 	20 min

WRAP UP (gauge new learning)

What is the Message?!

- “As a wrap up, please share what you think the message of your book is? A message is a main idea or point that the author and illustrator are trying to make. What did you learn from this story?”
- “In our last session we will be making your own message through a creative project. Start thinking about a message or idea that you want people to hear.”
